Matt;

We had an incredible year at Advantage Hole In One in 2013. With out your partnership and dedication we could not have achieved what we did. Golf Today continues to support many charities in the state of Florida and gives back to each one through your hole challenges and hole in one activity.

Your family is as dedicated as they come with respect to driving money to local charities. The support from Golf Today at this year's Birdies for the Brave tournament here in Tampa was outstanding and helped the board donate a home to an in need military family.

I personally look forward to your support and dedication this year. So many charities, golf courses, and families will benefit from golf today in 2014.

Thank You;

Scott Malatesta
